

R.C.C. No. 398/2002ORDER BELOW EXH. 955

1. Ld. APP has filed present application seeking time to file say on an application for alteration of charge vide Exh. 953. It is contended that due to heavy work load in the court of CJM, Dharashiv he has no time to file say on the application on alteration of charge and therefore he has sought time to file say on this application. Say is not filed by the accused on this application. Heard Ld. APP Shri. V.S.Shevalkar for State. Perusal of record shows that present matter is time bound matter and already directions are given to the prosecution as well as accused to proceed with the matter without fail on the date fixed for the same. Further it appears that on last date accused No. 7 has filed an application for alteration of charges vide Exh. 953 and today matter is kept for filing say on the said application. Hence in view this, Ld. APP is directed to file say on application Exh. 953 on next date without fail. With this direction short adjournment is granted as prayed for.
