Letter - 14/9/2000

Dear Sir,

Sub: Prior approval for change in majority shareholding pattern of -
Home Trade Ltd (formerly known as EuroAsian Securities Ltd)

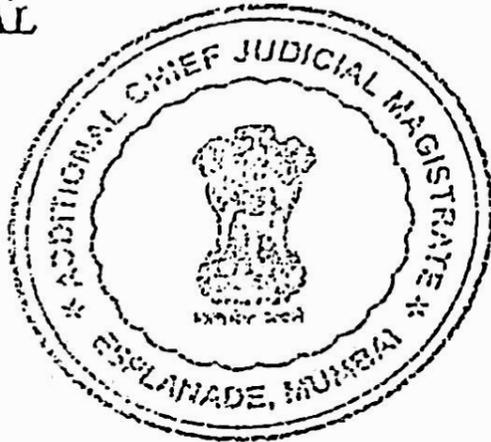

This has reference to your letter seeking prior approval for proposed change in majority shareholding pattern of the above mentioned member of your exchange. We do not have any objection regarding change in shareholding pattern, if the case is sent to us for registration without any undue delay.

Further, the approval for change in shareholding is based on the information available with SEBI at that point of time and this does not preclude SEBI from withdrawing the approval at a later stage, if any investigation/enquiry or anything adverse is found against the transferor or the applicant before granting the final registration.

It is further advised that the Exchange may ensure that registration fees payable by the concerned member as per Schedule III/ court orders, whichever applicable, is paid by the member before forwarding the application for fresh registration.

Yours faithfully,

PRANJAL
